

Educational Visits Risk Assessment

Activity	Hazard	Personal risks	Risk level	Precautions	Additional notes
Education Sessions
Movement between buildings	Child separation from main group	Road traffic accident/abduction	Low	Head count on leaving buildings, at least one adult from the school with every group. Responsibilities reinforced through information provided to schools and pre-visit.	WMM recommends a ratio of 1:8 for KS2 school visits to site.
Movement in buildings	Tripping on stairs/wooden floors	Sprains/cuts/bruises	Low	Close staff supervision, hazards highlighted, use of handrails encouraged.
Handling of weapons – if applicable	Catching fingers in breech of rifle	Crush injuries/cuts/bruises	Low	Adequate supervision at all times, advice given on safe handling.	School to give permission to handle firearms prior to visit.
Handling of gas masks – if applicable	Possible asbestos present	Possible lung infection	Low	Adequate supervision at all times, pupils are to be told not to place masks on face.	Replica mask available
Public on site	Child separation from main group	Loss of child	Low	Head count on leaving buildings, at least one adult from the school with every group.	The museums are open to the public daily.
Visit to West Hill Cemetery – if applicable	1. Crossing of St James' Lane – narrow footpath over bridge and traffic.	Collision with passing traffic. Sprains, cuts and	Med Med	Adequate supervision at all times, adult at front and rear, cross as one line. Adequate supervision at all times,	Visit additional Museum if wet.

Educational Visits Risk Assessment

	2. Uneven ground in cemetery. 3. Grass slippery when wet.	bruises.		children not to run around site
Food eaten in Nutrition session – if applicable	Allergic reaction	Illness, anaphylaxis	Low	Ingredients to be given to school in advance. School to confirm that children can eat/handle food on the day.
Infection Protection	Infection with Covid-19	Illness, isolation	Low	Staff and students to follow government advice on isolation if exposed and the cancel or postpone the visit if necessary. Handwashing and sanitiser available and encouraged. Government advice on social distancing and mask wearing to be adhered to. Ventilation provided where available.

Each of the museums that form WMM are inspected daily for hazards, before being opened to the public. Any possible hazards are identified and neutralised. Any specific concerns will be highlighted to school staff on arrival at the museums.